

Save the Date:
April 13, 2016

Time: 9:00-1pm

Location:

Taylor Hall

1775 N. Indian Hill
Claremont, CA 91711

9:00am - Check-in
with coffee & snacks

9:30am - Speakers

12pm- Complimentary
Lunch & Networking

Employment Stability CONFERENCE

Designed to promote employer awareness of mental health in the workplace

How to comply with California Labor Laws

Bobby Rupal— Attorney at Rupal Law specializing in business and labor laws.

Mr. Rupal will speak on how to remain in compliance with the changing labor laws in California.

1 hour Q&A session will follow the presentation. This is your opportunity to ask an attorney questions you may have about employment and labor related topics.

Mental Health First Aid Training

Lisa Naranjo - Program Supervisor for Prevention and Early Intervention at Tri-City Mental Health.

Learn about Mental Health First Aid and how this training can help you understand depression and anxiety, the two most common mental illnesses which can affect your workplace.

To RSVP email Mark Bellegia, Innovation Program Coordinator
mbellegia@tricitymhs.org

FREE EVENT

Space is limited. Conference sponsored by Tri-City Mental Health through the Mental Health Services Act. For questions contact Mark Bellegia 909.326-4637 / mbellegia@tricitymhs.org